atisfaction and safety

for each patient are at the core of Dr. Bradley Bengton's philosophy, but relationships are at its heart. Dr. Bengton believes that breast augmentation and enhancement surgery is a highly personal decision, so he works closely with each patient to tailor their procedure to their desired outcome. "We have a very unique practice that is all about the patient," he says. And in his opinion, the best patient results come from a less-is-more expectation, so he strives for a natural, proportional outcome. His practice is one of the largest in the country dealing with complex complications, thanks to his innovative approach to breast augmentation and secondary revisional surgery.

The best plastic surgery is in patients who you can't tell have had it.

WHO I AM

1.

MY HAPPIEST PROFESSIONAL MOMENT

Starting and opening my new aesthetic plastic surgery practice five years ago

2.

MOST INSPIRATIONAL THING I LEARNED THIS YEAR

It's all about the why, not the what; patients do things we recommend because of why we do what we do, not what we do 3.

THREE WORDS THAT BEST DESCRIBE ME

Caring, kind, passionate

4.

WHAT I LOVE MOST ABOUT MY PROFESSION

It is a blend of both art and science

5.

HOW MY PROFESSION HAS EVOLVED

Plastic surgery has always been very innovative, but the curve is becoming much more exponential

6.

WHEN YOU KNOW YOU'RE READY FOR SURGERY

When your concerns exceed what can be accomplished with nonsurgical techniques, particularly skin excess 7.

CAREER-DEFINING PROCEDURE

For me, it's been a focus on breast augmentation and breast revision using tissues and scaffolds

8.

HOW I WOULD SPEND EXTRA TIME IN A DAY

With my family

Ryan Mitchell, MD, FRCSC and Bradley Bengton, MD, FACS
